- no idea of the percentage of people who would resist the regime if given outside support. The people were all afraid of informers and did not discuss such things.
- 4. Because many of the leading government officials in Hungary were of Jewish background, strong anti-Semitism existed in Hungary.
- 5. In 1952 and 1953, a new highway was being built from Budapest to Pecs /N 46-05, E 18-137. This highway was similar to an Autobahn, and of concreto wide enough for four cars.
